INTRODUCTION

This index is an updated version of the Index by Harry Eskew published as Paper No. XXIX (1949-1972). The present index encompasses 31 volumes of The Hymn from the first issue in October 1949 through October 1981. The entries in the first index (1949-1972) appear in this index largely unchanged with the entries from 1973-1981 added. Some revisions have been made with regard to subject headings in order to bring them closer in line with Library of Congress and Music Index subject headings. Exact alignment was not always desirable, however, due to the specialized nature of this index.

Guides to Usage

Each entry normally includes the following data:

1. Title
2. Author (and reviewer when applicable)
3. Volume and beginning page number
4. Month and year

As in the 1972 index, the word "hymn" has usually been omitted from subject headings since nearly everything relates to hymns (some exceptions: GOSPEL HYMNS, PHILOSOPHY OF THE HYMN, THE HYMN, HYMN STORIES). Therefore, to find articles on English hymnody, look under ENGLISH. The three largest bodies of hymnody (AMERICAN, ENGLISH, and GERMAN) are subdivided by centuries.

Titles beginning with "a", "an" or "the" (in all languages) have been disregarded in alphabetization except in the listing of hymn texts, and tune names, and the subject headings, THE HYMN, and THE STANZA.

Names beginning with Mc or Mac are alphabetized as if they were spelled Mac (Ex. MABLE, McALL, MacKAY, MACY).

Hymnals are generally indexed under compiler, religious denomination, country, culture, or language.

Persons are thoroughly indexed except when they are only given passing mention in an article.

Hymn texts printed in The Hymn including more than one stanza or with music are indexed under TEXTS--BY FIRST LINE. Hymn tunes are indexed by name, or if no name is given, by text first line. Tune names generally are given all capital letters.

Generally not included in this index are titles of articles, such as those found in the section "Hymns in Periodical Literature."

The subject heading PHOTOGRAPHS AND PORTRAITS has been deleted. Entries, however, are listed under the individual names.

Acknowledgments

I am greatly indebted to Harry Eskew, current editor of The Hymn, for providing the original index cards from the first Index, and for his advice, assistance, and patience at all points along the way to the completion of this edition of the Index. I am also grateful to W. Thomas Smith, Executive Director of the Hymn Society, for back issues of The Hymn which made the task of checking and proof-reading much easier. Finally, I would like to thank the following individuals for their clerical assistance: Rick Finklea, Delane Tew, and Christy DeButts.

Corrections and suggestions for possible future editions of this Index of The Hymn will be most welcome. Please address them to:
