

Wittenberg University Office

An attractive part of Wittenberg University's invitation to provide a home for The Hymn Society was its offer of free office space. This photo shows Executive Director Tom Smith standing on the porch of 42 Ward Street, one of the locations provided by the university.

