

75 Years of Hymn Society Hymns

The Hymn Society's seventy-fifth anniversary celebration included a festival of hymns written across that span by members. The selection was made, and the festival led, by George Black, Emily R. Brink, and Nancy R. Faus, joint editors of  Holding in Trust  (1992).

"We have come at Christ's own bidding," Carl P. Daw, Jr.
TRANSFIGURATION, Joel Martinson

"The light of God is falling," Louis F. Benson
LAUFER, Emily S. Perkins

"Hope of the world, thou Christ of great compassion," Georgia Harkness
DONNE SECOURS, Trente quatre pseumes de David

"As saints of old their first-fruits brought," Frank von Christierson
REGWAL, Leland B. Sateren

"Creating God, your fingers trace," Jeffery Rowthorn
KEDRON, The United States Sacred Harmony

"God of earth and planets," William Watkins Reid
WEM IN LEIDENSTAGEN, Friedrich Filitz

"A bird, a lovely butterfly," Florence Pedigo Jansson
WOODLANDS, Seth Kasten

"Through all the world, let every nation sing," Bryan Jeffrey Leech
CONRAD, Paul Liljestränd

"Silence! frenzied unclean spirit," Thomas H. Troeger
AUTHORITY, Carol Doran

"You never saw old Galilee," Herman G. Steumpfle, Jr.
PETER'S CHANTY, Ben S. DeVan

"As he gathered at his table," Paul A. Richardson
STUART, Paul A. Richardson

"When, in our music, God is glorified," Fred Pratt Green
ENGELBERG, Charles Villiers Stanford
YOGANANDA, William P. Rowan
CELEBRATION '85, Milburn Price
FREDERICKTOWN, Charles R. Anders