

Festival of Fellows

The 1995 conference included a festival titled “What a Fellowship,” in which all texts and tunes were by Fellows of The Hymn Society.

Paul Weber’s “Partita on WITTENBERG NEW,” based on the tune by Jan Bender, was the prelude.

“We praise you with our minds, O Lord,” Hugh T. McElrath
CLONMEL, arranged William J. Reynolds

“All who love and serve your city,” Erik Routley
CHARLESTON, arranged Carlton R. Young

“Eternal Spirit of the living Christ,” Frank von Christierson
FLENTGE, Carl F. Schalk

“Of all the Spirit’s gifts to me,” Fred Pratt Green
THREEFOLD GIFTS, Austin C. Lovelace

“Let us build a house of worship,” Margaret Clarkson
ST. MATTHEWS, Donald P. Hustad

“God of earth and planets,” William Watkins Reid unnamed tune, Shirley L. Brown

“Jesus in a stable born,” Thomas Tiplady unnamed tune, Lee Hastings Bristol, Jr.

“Father, we thank you, for you planted,” translated F. Bland Tucker
RENDEZ Á DIEU, harmonized John Wilson

“For the bread which you have broken,” Louis F. Benson
BENG-LI, I-to Loh

“O the Lamb, the loving Lamb,” unknown
THE LAMB, adapted and arranged Ellen Jane Lorenz Porter

“Christ goes before, and we are called to follow,” Jaroslav J. Vajda
RIVERSIDE, Carl F. Schalk