

SONGS FOR THE HOLY OTHER

HYMNS AFFIRMING THE LGBTQIA2S+ COMMUNITY

THE HYMN SOCIETY

Songs for the Holy Other

In our society and in our churches, we continue to build walls marking “out” and “in”. We continue to mark boundaries of “us” and “them”, of “normal” and “other”. Songs for the Holy Other aims to provide congregations working to dismantle these walls with a toolbox of hymns by and for those who identify as members of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, pansexual, transgender, nonbinary, queer, questioning, intersex, asexual, aromantic, two-spirit, and other sexual/gender minority (LGBTQIA2S+) community and their allies. For many members of the LGBTQIA2S+ community, assimilation is not an option; we continue to be othered for our identities, relationship-styles, dis/abilities, race, economic status, and more. The title, Songs for the Holy Other, is a self-conscious claiming of otherness as holy and beloved of God. We who have been labeled as “wholly other” are claiming our holiness, and reclaiming our otherness as a prophetic witness to the church.

Hymn writer and theologian Rev. Dr. Carl P. Daw, Jr., FHS writes:

“Human otherness (of whatever kind) provides a sacramental reminder of the ultimate otherness of God, and openness to human otherness has the potential to enlarge our perception of and receptivity to divine otherness. It is also an essential element of human maturity to recognize otherness, i.e. to know where the self ends and otherness begins, whether that otherness be other people or non-human objects. From a theological perspective, “otherness” is a necessary dimension of the movement from the disappointments of self-sufficiency to the assurances of trust in God.”

The gifts God has given us are not in spite of our otherness, our queerness, our LGBTQIA2S+ identities, but rather our identities are inextricably tied up in our God-given gifts, and are, in and of themselves, a gift to the church, as we reflect the rainbow diversity of God’s creation.

This collection emerged from a desire to make queer hymns — hymns by, for, or about the LGBTQIA2S+ community — accessible to a wider range of congregations. While the idea emerged from the membership of the The Hymn Society in the United States and Canada, and the committee was made up of LGBTQIA2S+ and allied members of The Hymn Society, it would not have been possible without the support of the staff and executive committee of the The Hymn Society. We also realize that there are many more authors and composers than we could include in this collection. We celebrate the contributions of those who have paved the way for this collection, and hope to create a dynamic resource of additional resources that are available to congregations in the near future.

1. When you feel change might be hope - less, when you've giv - en up on God,

3. You are worth more than you real - ize. You are won - der - ful - ly made

The wrong prayer you have been pray - ing. You are not God's af - ter-thought.

You are made as God in - tend - ed. You are per - fect—flaw-less too!
Don't let doc - trines of our church - es use the Word to mis - con - strue,

May each one of you re - mem - ber, no-thing sev - ers God from you.

It consists of five systems of music, each with a vocal line and a bass line. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The score includes four numbered verses and a final chorus. The music features a mix of eighth and quarter notes, with some rests. The bass line provides a harmonic foundation with chords and single notes.

2. Bring grace and bring kind - ness to all that you sing,
3. The dark - ness we ban - ish, the sha - dow we blame

So bring all your cour - age that all be made whole,
Our cour - age can make us, can heal and can mend,

God's Love Is Boundless

In celebration of Tracy Glaser-Bacon's ordination, September 4, 2016 at New Vision United Church of Christ, Canton, Ohio

Meter: 10 10 10 10

God's love is boundless; no depth and no height
can plunge us in shadows or hide us from sight.
No present, no future, no span is too far;
God remains with us, wherever we are.

There is no border enclosing God's love;
no limit to test, no below, no above.
No center to strive for, no margin to fear;
Anywhere, everywhere, God is still here.

People make limits, and mark "out" and "in"
to name some unworthy and tainted by sin.
But when we are "out," Love provides us a place:
we have a home in God's infinite grace!

I Shall Not Leave from by Your Side

Meter: LM

I shall not leave from by your side;
where you will live, I shall abide.
Where you will go, I'll walk with you.
Where you will sleep, I'll slumber, too.

Your people, I shall call my own:

And when, at last, you close your eyes,
and angels bid your soul to rise,
my heart shall fly to heaven with you,
for death cannot such love undo.

May God, who binds us heart to heart,
abide with us, and never part.
Though joy or pain may round us roll,
the love of God shall make us whole.

Text: Chris Shelton, 2018

This hymn sets the song of Ruth to Naomi in Ruth 1:16-17, one of the great love texts of Scripture. It is primarily about the love between two women – though Ruth's final words are very much a prayer, asking that God prevent even death from parting them. While we often reserve such songs for weddings – if Scripture is able to sing of human love, shouldn't we? The text was built with the rising and falling sound of the Southern Harmony tune, PROSPECT, in mind.

Traditional English, harm. CJ Redden-Liotta

The musical score is written for a four-part setting in 3/4 time, with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of two systems of music, each with a vocal melody line (treble clef) and a bass line (bass clef). The lyrics are arranged in four stanzas, with the first two stanzas corresponding to the first system and the last two to the second system. The melody is characterized by a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, and rests. The bass line provides a steady accompaniment with chords and single notes.

We Are a Rainbow an affirming hymn

Words and music by David Kai ©2017 Tune: Slocan

And God said, “Let there be light”; and there was light.

Genesis 1: 3 (RSV)

Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him, ...” I establish my covenant with you, that never again shall all flesh be cut off by the waters of a flood, and never again shall there be a flood to destroy the earth.” God said, “This is the sign of the covenant that I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for all future generations: I have set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be a sign of the covenant between me and the earth.”

Genesis 9: 8, 11-13 (NRSV)

Now Israel loved Joseph more than all his children, because he was the son of his old age: and he made him a coat of many colors.

Genesis 37: 3 (KJV)

Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning.

Psalms 30: 5b (NRSV)

“You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house.”

Matthew 5: 14, 15 (NRSV)

These scriptures are the inspiration behind this hymn written particularly for affirming ministries. The hymn draws on rainbow and rainbow-coloured imagery in the Bible, and the imagery of light which is composed of rainbow colors. The hymn suggests that affirming ministries have a badly needed light which they can proudly share with the world.

We Are a Rainbow

Words and music by David Kai ©2017 Tune: Slocan (see below)

We're the light of all the world, we are a city on a hill,
We're a candle on a stand proclaiming light,
We will not hide our lamp beneath a bushel any more,
We will shine a ray of hope that's burning bright.

Chorus: We are a rainbow, sign of covenant and peace,
For the flood of tears will finally cease to be,
Come shine your rainbow, splash your hues across the sky,
Paint the world in colors proud and bold and free.

We're a coat of many colors, sewn from many different threads,
Covering all in warmth, in welcome and in grace,
God said "Let there be light", created every varied shade,
In the rainbow each of us can find a place. Chorus:

We are hope to still believe in tomorrow's better day,
We are peace in a world that's torn apart,
We are joy that will last in all the struggles that we face,
We are love that blooms and grows in every heart. Chorus:

When we face the storms of life, we will never be alone,
For our God will be with us on the way,
Hand in hand, side by side, we won't be frightened* any more,
As the mourning night of tears breaks into day. Chorus:

*alt: clobbered

It is my custom to name my hymn tunes after camps and ghost towns where Canadians of Japanese descent were interned during the Second World War. In this way I hope to ensure that these places will not be forgotten.
